The way we work (expected behaviours)	Stewardship of resources We endeavour to make the most effective use of the resources available to us while at work, be they financial, material, time, environmental, relationships. We take the view that, to the best of our ability, these resources should be

	used to maximise the benefit to the young people we work with, their whānau and the communities they and we live in. The wellbeing of ourselves and others We will ensure that our actions while at work enhance our own wellbeing and that of others. Diversity, discrimination and stigmatisation We will act in ways that enhance expressions of diversity, challenge discrimination and reduce stigmatisation. We will act in these ways within the workplace, with our clients and their whānau and in our communities. Integrity We will ensure that our behaviour while at work would always bear the scrutiny of others. In situations where we are unsure about the right thing to do or we think we may have a conflict of interest, we will ask and seek guidance. If we see someone else behaving in a way does not line up with our values we will not ignore it but address it with them and someone else if necessary. Connection, relationship and trust We place high value on relationships and will work to ensure that they are healthy and supportive. We know that trust needs to be cultivated and commit ourselves to this. We also understand that there are circumstances where confidentiality must be upheld.
